REFLATE, an association formed by BA Economics students, organized a philanthropic event titled "A Helping Hand to the Needy" on April 1, 2022. The event aimed to extend support to the inmates of Asha Kiran- the School of Differently Aabled, through a generous donation and a program filled with speeches and felicitations. They donated an amount of Rs. 30,000.00.

The program commenced with a solemn prayer, setting a tone of compassion and solidarity. Mr. Muhammed Noufel, the Principal of Asha Kiran School, warmly welcomed the attendees, emphasizing the importance of collective efforts in supporting the differently-abled community. Fr. Johny Kochuthazham, the Administrator of Asha Kiran School, delivered a heartfelt presidential address, expressing gratitude towards the organizers and stressing the significance of such initiatives in fostering inclusivity and empathy in society.

Rev. Fr. Biju Joseph CMI, the Manager of CMI Institutions, delivered the inaugural address, highlighting the role of education in promoting social equality and advocating for the rights of individuals with disabilities.

The event also featured felicitations by Rev. Fr. Anto N.J., Vice Principal of St. Joseph's College, and Dr. Shiby M. Thomas, Head of the Department of Economics at the same institution. Mr. Don Thomas, Assistant Professor in the Department of Political Science at St. Joseph's College, extended a vote of thanks, expressing appreciation to all participants and donors for their contributions towards the noble cause.

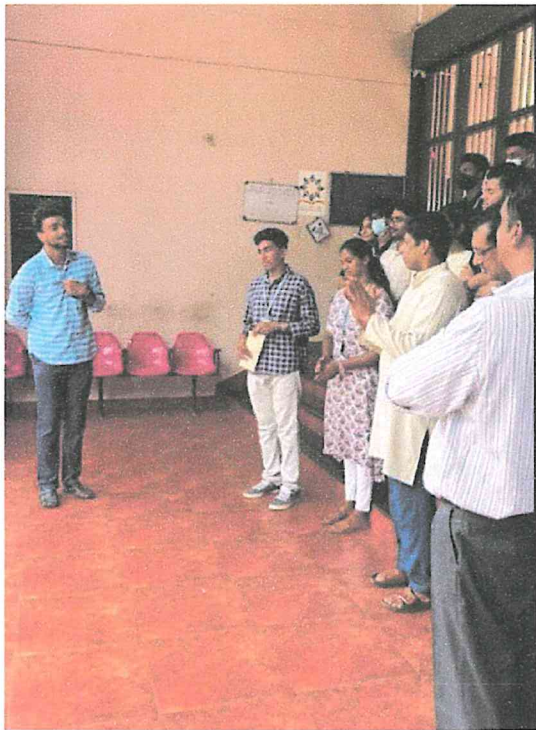

The event organized by REFLATE association served as a poignant reminder of the importance of extending support and compassion to those in need, especially to the differently-abled community. Through collective efforts and generosity, the event not only provided financial assistance but also fostered a sense of belonging
