Report

Social work is a practice-based profession that promotes social change, development, cohesion and the empowerment of people and communities. Social work involves the understanding of human development, behavior and the social, economic and cultural institutions and interactions. On 29th November 2021, a social work program was conducted at Kuthiravattam Mental Hospital by the NCC Army Wing, in coordination with Capt. Binoy Varakil from St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri. The program aimed at cleaning the premises of the hospital and distributing food to the inmates.

The program began at 10:00 am with an inauguration ceremony. Dr. Fr. Sunil Jose, Vice Principal of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, inaugurated the event. He emphasized the importance of community service and encouraged the cadets to actively participate in such initiatives. Capt. Binoy Varakil also addressed the gathering, highlighting the significance of the day's activities.

Following the inauguration, the NCC Army cadets, totaling 30 in number, engaged in cleaning the hospital premises. They worked diligently, cleaning various areas of the hospital, including the corridors, gardens, and common areas. Simultaneously, a team prepared food packets for distribution among the inmates. The program concluded at 01:00 pm with a vote of thanks delivered by Cadet Anupama Rajeev. She thanked all the participants, organizers, and authorities for their contributions and support. The event not only benefited the inmates and authorities of Kuthiravattam Hospital but also left a positive impact on the cadets, instilling in them a sense of social responsibility and empathy.

Feedback from the authorities and inmates of Kuthiravattam Hospital was overwhelmingly positive. They expressed their gratitude towards the NCC Army

The donation program was organized by NSS Units 16 & 100 of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, highlighting their commitment to community service and social responsibility. The primary beneficiaries of the event were the students of Asha Kiran School for Differently Abled, who received the donated musical instruments. These instruments would provide them with opportunities for creative expression, sensory stimulation, and joyous experiences.

The donation of musical instruments to Asha Kiran School exemplified the spirit of compassion and inclusivity, fostering a sense of belonging and empowerment among differently-abled individuals. It showcased the collective efforts of the college community in making a positive impact on society and promoting the well-being of all its members.

Report

Book for a Cause is an initiative organised by NSS unit 16 & 100 for the public by donating used books for building libraries of Udayam Home which operates in Mankavu, Chevayur & Vellimadukunnu. The event was held on July 3rd, 2021, in Udayam Home from 9:30 am to 3 pm.

The programme started with the welcome address delivered by Mr. Robin Xavier, NSS Co-ordinator, St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri followed by the presidential address by Dr. Sabu K Thomas, Principal, St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri. Mr. Sukumaran Chettiyath, Udayam Home Library, Mankavu gave an inaugural address that shed light on the importance of libraries in society such as providing the crucial role in promoting education, research, personality development, ethics and other important values. Dr. Asha Mathew, Assistant Professor, department of Economics along with Dr. Jisha Jacob, Assistant Professor, department of Zoology delivered felicitation speeches, extending their support for the initiative. The program concluded with a sincere vote of thanks proposed by Ms. Neethu Baby, NSS Co-ordinator, St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri.

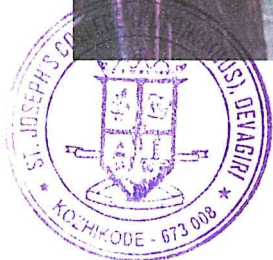

This programme benefited many publics who loved reading and had no access to books and libraries nearby. A society cannot flourish without proper education and the primary requirement of the education system is the knowledge available in the books. Libraries offer free education and entertainment to the masses which can be a student, a work professional or a common person of a community. It doesn't matter what your economic status is, in community libraries like Udayam Home you can come in and have free access to books that can inform and transform you. So it was truly a massive initiative to transform society.

Report

The NSS of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, in collaboration with Rajagiri SPG Workshop Series 5 organized a two day online SDG Agenda program on 06/10/2021 and 07/06/2021 at Seminar Hall (Zoom Meeting) from 09.00 am to 04.00 pm reflecting a joint commitment to advancing sustainable development initiatives and youth empowerment. The SDG Agenda program aimed to raise awareness and foster understanding among NSS volunteers regarding the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), promoting their active engagement in initiatives aligned with these goals for a sustainable future.

The event commenced with a solemn prayer, setting a reflective tone for the proceedings. Mr. Robin Xavier, NSS Coordinator, extended a warm welcome to all participants, emphasizing the significance of the SDGs and the role of NSS volunteers in contributing to their attainment. Dr. Sabu K. Thomas, Principal, delivered an insightful address, highlighting the importance of youth participation in sustainable development efforts and urging volunteers to embrace their responsibility towards realizing the SDGs. Dr. Abhilash G. Namboodiri, Assistant Professor from Rajagiri Business School, inaugurated the event, emphasizing the relevance of the SDGs in contemporary global development discourse and inspiring volunteers to actively engage in SDG-related activities. Dr. Asha Mathew and Mr. Joies Tom J., Assistant Professors from the Departments of Economics and Zoology respectively, were felicitated for their contributions to sustainable development initiatives within the college and beyond. Ms. Neethu Baby, Assistant Professor and NSS Coordinator, expressed gratitude to all dignitaries, participants, and organizers for their support and participation in making the event a success.
