Report

SINAG - World Environment Day Programme was organized on June 10, 2021, from 11.00 am to 03.30 pm at St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, with the aim of spreading awareness about environmental issues and fostering discussions on pertinent topics concerning ecosystems. The event brought together students, faculty, and experts in the field to deliberate on the challenges and significance of restoring ecosystems from tropical to polar regions.

The programme commenced with a prayer, invoking a sense of reverence and mindfulness towards nature and the environment. Dr. Ranimol Stephen, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, extended a warm welcome to all the attendees, setting the tone for the day's discussions. Dr. Tania Francis, Head of the Department, Department of Chemistry, delivered the presidential address, emphasizing the importance of collective action in preserving and protecting our environment. Rev. Fr. Anto N.J., Vice Principal, inaugurated the event, highlighting the college's commitment to environmental conservation and sustainable practices.

Dr. Meril Mathew, Head of the Department, Department of Physics, felicitated the gathering, acknowledging the efforts put forth by the organizers and participants. Dr. Manoj Mathews, Assistant Professor, Department of Chemistry, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the speakers, sponsors, and attendees for their valuable contributions and active participation.

The academic sessions were the focal point of the programme, providing attendees with insights into the challenges and significance of restoring ecosystems across different climatic zones. Dr. Mahesh Mohan, Assistant Professor, School of Environmental Sciences, MG University, Kottayam, served as the resource person for the sessions. Dr. Mohan delivered a comprehensive talk on "Restoration of

Report

The Gandhi Jayanthi Speech Competition, organized by the NCC Naval Unit of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, was held on September 26th, 2021, at the Open Auditorium. The competition aimed to commemorate the life and ideals of Mahatma Gandhi and to promote the principles of non-violence among the Naval Cadets. The competition featured Naval Cadets from the NCC Navy Unit of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, as participants. The event commenced promptly at 03:00 PM and was conducted in an atmosphere of reverence and respect for the occasion.

Participants delivered extemporaneous speeches on one of the given topics: "Life of Gandhi", "Relevance of Non-violence in the Current Scenario", or "Ahimsa - the Way to Peace". The topics were revealed to the participants just 5 minutes before the actual speech, adding an element of spontaneity and challenge to the competition. Each participant was allotted 10 minutes to articulate their thoughts and reflections on the chosen topic, showcasing their understanding of Gandhi's philosophy and its contemporary significance. Naval Cadets demonstrated remarkable eloquence and depth of understanding as they passionately expounded on their respective topics. Their speeches reflected a profound appreciation for Gandhi's principles of truth, non-violence, and peaceful resistance, as well as their application in addressing modern-day challenges. A panel of judges, comprising faculty members and experts in the field, evaluated the speeches based on criteria such as content, delivery, coherence, and relevance to the topic. The competition offered a cash prize of Rs. 2000 to the winner, recognizing their exemplary oratory skills and insightful interpretation of the chosen theme.

Report

St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, in collaboration with Ek Bharath Shreshtha Bharath, organized a quiz competition commemorating the life and legacy of Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation. The event aimed to enlighten and engage students about Gandhiji's principles and contributions towards India's freedom struggle. The event catered to the students of the entire college, providing them with an opportunity to delve into the life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi, a significant figure in India's history and the global arena.

The program was held on October 2, 2021 at PTA hall through google meet as an online platform from 02:00 PM to 04:00 PM. The quiz was structured into three rounds, each designed to engage participants in various aspects of Gandhiji's life and philosophy.

The rounds included: Pictorial Round: Participants were presented with images related to significant events, places, or symbols associated with Gandhiji's life and were required to identify and interpret them. Audio Round: This round tested participants' knowledge through audio clips of speeches, songs, or interviews by Mahatma Gandhi or about him, challenging them to recognize and understand the context. Rapid Fire Round: A quick-paced round where participants had to answer questions rapidly, demonstrating their depth of knowledge about Gandhiji's life, principles, and historical events related to him. Teams comprised of two members each, with only one team allowed from each department of the college. Registration was conducted on the spot, ensuring spontaneous participation from interested students. A cash prize of Rs. 1000.00 was awarded to the winning team, motivating participants to engage actively and perform their best in the quiz competition.

Report

The Essay Writing Competition held in association with the celebration of World Hindi Day on 10/01/2022 was a momentous event at St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri. Organized by the Department of Second Languages, the competition aimed to promote linguistic diversity and proficiency among students who have chosen Hindi as their Second Language.

The program commenced with an insightful inauguration speech by Rev. Fr. Bony Augustine, emphasizing the significance of linguistic inclusivity and the importance of celebrating languages on a global scale. His words set the tone for an engaging and intellectually stimulating event.

Under the coordination of Mr. Sanoj P.R., Assistant Professor in the Department of Second Languages, the competition unfolded smoothly, with individual participants showcasing their prowess in Hindi language and literary expression. The essays covered a wide array of topics, demonstrating the versatility and depth of the language.

As the event drew to a close, Dr. Sabu K. Thomas, the esteemed Principal of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri, presided over the prize distribution ceremony. The winners were announced amidst applause and admiration for their exemplary work.

Heartfelt congratulations were extended to the prize winners:

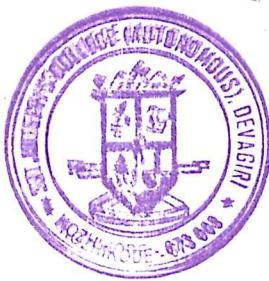

- Ms. Sneha Surendran, whose insightful exploration of the chosen topic in her essay earned her the First Prize.

The Poster Making Competition on the topic of Environment Pollution was held on February 5th , 2022 from 02.00 pm to 04.00 pm at the Open Auditorium of St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri. Organized by the Department of Social Work, the competition aimed to raise awareness about environmental issues and promote creative expression among the students.

The competition kicked off with an inauguration ceremony led by Dr. Aneesh Kurian, Head of the Department of Social Work. Dr. Kurian highlighted the importance of addressing environmental pollution and encouraged students to use their artistic talents to convey powerful messages that inspire positive change. Participants were instructed to form teams of two members each, with only one team allowed per program. This format encouraged collaboration and diversity of perspectives in addressing the topic of environment pollution through art. The competition provided a platform for students to showcase their creativity and passion for environmental conservation. Participants used various artistic techniques and mediums to create visually compelling posters that convey important messages about the impact of pollution on the environment and society. The posters were judged based on creativity, relevance to the theme, and effectiveness in communicating the message.

The prize distribution ceremony was conducted by Rev. Fr. Sunil M. Antony, Director of Self Financing Programmes at St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Devagiri. Cash prizes totaling Rs. 2000.00 were awarded to the winning team, acknowledging their exceptional creativity and contribution to raising awareness about environmental pollution.
